1. The amendment filed 4/15/2005 has been received and entered by the examiner.
2. Claims 1-16 are presenting for examination.
3. Claims 1-13 are allowed over the prior art of record.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ingrassia (US Pat. No. 5,941,957).

6. As to claim 14, Ingrassia teaches a method of joining a customer service representative (agent) to an existing page session, comprising the steps of:

- returning a session-overview web page (special web page) to a customer service representative (agent) in response to a request from the agent, wherein the page includes a current session (consumer who is at an endpoint system 104 is browsing a web page, see col 12, lines 39-40), a session identifier (session ID) for the current session, and information associated with the current party (consumer), see col 12, lines 49-56; and

Art Unit: 2157

- joining the customer service representative (agent) to the current session responsive to receipt of the session identifier (session ID) from the agent (the agent types the session ID into box 804, see Fig 8A, col 12, lines 57-58), see col 13, lines 5-11.

7. As to claim 15, notifying a sessions overview subsystem (WTS server 144, see Fig 2) in response to the agent joining the current session, see col 13, lines 7-11.

8. As to claim 16, recording the associated page and the party (agent) who is joined the current session, see col 13, lines 15-19.

Therefore, it can be seen from paragraphs 6-8 that Ingrassia anticipates claims 14-16.

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
